RULES.

—:o:—

1. The competition shall be open to all residents in Singapore, Penang, Malacca, and the Native States.
2. All articles exhibited for competition shall have been grown by the exhibitor, or must have been in his possession at least four weeks before the day of exhibition—Bouquets and Table Decorations excepted.
3. It should be distinctly understood that all plants exhibited in Section II. must be in flower, and fruits and vegetables must be fit for use. The plants in all classes which contain more than one kind, must be dissimilar kinds, except in class 58.
4. All articles included in any entry must be arranged, and the Exhibitors and Assistants must finally leave the shed by 6 p.m. on the day before the Exhibition opens—except Exhibitors in Sections IV., V. and VI., and class 58 who will be allowed to remain until 10 a.m. on the day of opening. Plants in pots cannot be received later than noon the day before the opening day.
5. The arrangement of the exhibits shall be subject to the direction of the Committee.
6. The Committee will appoint Judges, from whose decision there shall be no appeal.
7. The Judges will have authority to withhold the prize when they are of opinion that there is not sufficient merit to justify an award; or to award special prizes for anything not mentioned in the Schedule.
8. No Exhibitor shall be awarded two prizes in the same class, or more than five prizes in the same Section.

RULES,—Continued.

9. Intending Exhibitors must give notice to the Honorary Secretary, at least five days before the day of the show, in what classes they intend to exhibit, and must state the space they are likely to require, otherwise their productions may be rejected. On giving this information they will receive numbered cards, which must be attached to the exhibits in place of the Exhibitor's name.

10. No articles included in any entry shall be removed from the shed before the close of the show. Exhibitors will receive a ticket, marked with a number corresponding to that of their exhibits, which must be produced at the close of the show before they can be removed.

If Exhibitors will carefully attend to the Rules and Notes, and also label their productions with the numbers of the classes in which they wish them to be shown, confusion and trouble will be avoided.

All reasonable care will be taken of articles while on exhibition.

Should there be a surplus after paying the necessary expenses, it is hoped that the Committee may be enabled to defray some portion of the cartage.

The co-operation of the community is essential if the show is to be a success.

RULES.

1. The competition shall be open to all residents in Singapore, Penang, Malacca, and the Native States.
2. All articles exhibited for competition shall have been grown by the exhibitor, or must have been in his possession at least four weeks before the day of exhibition—Bouquets and Table Decorations excepted.
3. It should be distinctly understood that all plants exhibited in Section II. must be in flower, and fruits and vegetables must be fit for use. The plants in all classes which contain more than one kind, must be dissimilar kinds, except in class 48.
4. All articles included in any entry must be arranged, and the Exhibitors and Assistants must finally leave the shed by 6 p.m. on the day before the Exhibition opens—except Exhibitors in Sections IV., V. and VI., and class 48 who will be allowed to remain until 10 a.m. on the day of opening. Plants in pots cannot be received later than noon the day before the opening day.
5. The arrangement of the exhibits shall be subject to the directions of the Committee.
6. The Committee will appoint Judges, from whose decision there shall be no appeal.
7. The Judges will have authority to withhold the prize when they are of opinion that there is not sufficient merit to justify an award ; or to award special prizes for anything not mentioned in the Schedule.
8. No Exhibitor shall be awarded two prizes in the same class, or more than five prizes in the same Section.

RULES—Continued.

9. Intending Exhibitors must give notice to the Honorary Secretary, at least five days before the day of the show, in what classes they intend to exhibit, and must state the space they are likely to require, otherwise their productions may be rejected. On giving this information they will receive numbered cards, which must be attached to the exhibits in place of the Exhibitor's name.

10. No articles included in any entry shall be removed from the shed before the close of the show. Exhibitors will receive a ticket, marked with a number corresponding to that of their exhibits, which must be produced at the close of the show before they can be removed.

If Exhibitors will carefully attend to the Rules and Notes, and also label their productions with the numbers of the classes in which they wish them to be shown, confusion and trouble will be avoided.

All reasonable care will be taken of articles while on exhibition.

R U L E S .

1. The competition shall be open to residents in Singapore, Penang, Malacca, and the Native States.
2. All articles exhibited for competition shall have been grown by the exhibitor, or must have been in his possession at least four weeks before the day of exhibition—Bouquets and Table Decorations excepted.
3. It should be distinctly understood that all plants exhibited in Section II, must be in flower, and fruits and vegetables must be fit for use. The plants in all classes which contain more than one kind, must be of dissimilar kinds, except in class 50.
4. All articles included in any entry must be arranged, and the Exhibitors and assistants must finally leave the shed by six p.m. on the day before the Exhibition opens—except Exhibitors in Sections IV., V. and VI., and class 50 who will be allowed to remain until 10 a.m. on the day of opening. Plants in pots cannot be received latter than noon the day before the opening day.
5. The arrangement of the exhibits shall be subject to the directions of the Committee.
6. The Committee will appoint Judges, from whose decision there shall be no appeal.
7. The Judges will have authority to withhold the prize when they are of opinion that there is not sufficient merit to justify an award; or to award special prizes for anything not mentioned in the Schedule.
8. No Exhibitor shall be awarded two prizes in the same class, or more then five prizes in the same Section.

RULES—Continued.

9. Intending Exhibitors must give notice to the Honorary Secretary, at least five days before the day of the show, in what classes they intend to exhibit, and must state the space they are likely to require, otherwise their productions may be rejected. On giving this information they will receive numbered cards, which must be attached to the exhibits in place of the Exhibitor's name.

10. No articles included in any entry shall be removed from the shed before the close of the show. Exhibitors will receive a ticket, marked with a number corresponding to that of their exhibits, which must be produced at the close of the show before they can be removed.

If exhibitors will carefully attend to the Rules and Notes, and also label their productions with the numbers of the classes in which they wish them to be shown, confusion and trouble will be avoided.

All reasonable care will be taken of articles while on exhibition

R U L E S .

1. The competition shall be open to residents in Singapore, Penang, Malacca, and the Native States.
2. All articles exhibited for competition shall have been grown by the exhibitor, or must have been in his possession at least four weeks before the day of exhibition—Bouquets and Table Decorations excepted.
3. It shall be distinctly understood that all plants exhibited in Section II. must be in flower, and fruits and vegetables must be fit for use. The plants in all classes which contain more than one kind, must be of dissimilar kinds, except in class 50.
4. All articles included in any entry must be arranged, and the Exhibitors and assistants must finally leave the shed by 6 p.m. on the day before the Exhibition opens—except Exhibitors in Sections IV., V. and VI., who will be allowed to remain until 10 a.m. on the day of opening. Plants in pots cannot be received later than noon the day before the opening day.
5. The arrangement of the exhibits shall be subject to the directions of the Committee.
6. The Committee will appoint Judges, from whose decision there shall be no appeal.
7. The Judges will have authority to withhold the prize when they are of opinion that there is not sufficient merit to justify an award; or to award special prizes for anything not mentioned in the Schedule.
8. No Exhibitor shall be awarded two prizes in the same class, or more than five prizes in the same Section.

RULES—Continued.

9. Intending Exhibitors must give notice to the Honorary Secretary, at least five days before the day of the show, in what classes they intend to exhibit, and must state the space they are likely to require, otherwise their productions may be rejected. On giving this information they will receive numbered cards, which must be attached to the exhibits in place of the Exhibitor's name.

10. No articles included in any entry shall be removed from the shed before the close of the show. Exhibitors will receive a ticket, marked with a number corresponding to that of their exhibits, which must be produced at the close of the show before they can be removed.

If exhibitors will carefully attend to the Rules and Notes, and also label their productions with the numbers of the classes in which they wish them to be shown, confusion and trouble will be avoided.

All reasonable care will be taken of articles while on exhibition.

R U L E S.

1. The competition shall be open to residents in Singapore, Penang, Malacca, and the Native States.
2. All articles exhibited for competition shall have been grown by the exhibitor, or must have been in his possession at least four weeks before the day of Exhibition--Bouquets and Table Decorations excepted.
3. It shall be distinctly understood that all plants exhibited in Section II. must be in flower, and fruits and vegetables must be fit for use.
4. All articles included in any entry must be arranged, and the exhibitors and assistants must finally leave the Hall, by noon on the day of the Exhibition.
5. The arrangement of the exhibits shall be subject to the directions of the Committee.
6. The Committee will appoint Judges, from whose decision there shall be no appeal.
7. The Judges will have authority to withhold the prize when they are of opinion that there is not sufficient merit to justify an award: or to award special prizes for anything not mentioned in the Schedule.
8. No Exhibitor shall be awarded two prizes in the same class, or more than five prizes in the same Section.
9. Intending Exhibitors are requested to give notice to the Honorary Secretary, at least five days before the day of the show, in what classes they intend to exhibit. On giving this information they will receive numbered cards, which must be attached to the exhibits in place of the exhibitor's name.

10. No articles included in any entry shall be removed from the Hall before the close of the Show. Exhibitors will receive a ticket, marked with a number corresponding to that of their exhibits, which must be produced at the close of the Show before they can be removed.

If exhibitors will carefully attend to the Rules and Notes, and also label their productions with the numbers of the classes in which they wish them to be shown, confusion and trouble will be avoided.

All reasonable care will be taken of articles while on exhibition, but it must be distinctly understood that under no circumstances are the Committee liable for any damage that may occur.

1. The competition shall be open to residents in Singapore, Penang, Malacca, and the Native States.
2. All articles exhibited for competition shall have been grown by the exhibitor, or must have been in his possession at least four weeks before the day of Exhibition—Bouquets and Table Decorations excepted.
3. It shall be distinctly understood that all plants exhibited in Section II. must be in flower and distinct varieties.
4. All articles included in any entry must be arranged, and the exhibitors and assistants must finally leave the Hall, by noon on the day of the Exhibition.
5. The arrangement of the exhibits shall be subject to the directions of the Committee,
6. The Committee will appoint Judges, from whose decision there shall be no appeal,
7. The Judges will have authority to withhold the prize when they are of opinion that there is not sufficient merit to justify an award: or to award special prizes for anything not mentioned in the Schedule,
8. No Exhibitor shall be awarded two prizes in the same class, or more than five prizes in the same Section,
9. Intending Exhibitors are requested to give notice to the Honorary Secretary, at least five days before the day of the show, in what classes they intend to exhibit.

On giving this information they will receive numbered cards, which must be attached to the exhibits in place of the exhibitor's name.

10. No articles included in any entry shall be removed from the Hall before the close of the Show. Exhibitors will receive a ticket, marked with a number corresponding to that of their exhibits, which must be produced at the close of the Show before they can be removed.

If exhibitors will carefully attend to the Rules and Notes, and also label their productions with the numbers of the classes in which they wish them to be shown, confusion and trouble will be avoided.

All reasonable care will be taken of articles while on exhibition, but it must be distinctly understood that under no circumstances are the Committee liable for any damage that may occur.
